Fall in the City: A Season of Community

October has arrived, and Downtown Huntington is alive with the colors of fall and the energy of community. While summer concerts may have ended, the season ahead is packed with opportunities to gather, celebrate, and support local businesses.

Chillifest – September 27 Recap

Thank you to everyone who came out to enjoy Chillifest 2025! From the incredible chili and live entertainment to the chance to win a brand-new car, it was a full day of fun and flavor. Best of all, the event supported our member, Ronald McDonald House Charities Huntington, making it a true example of how our community comes together for a cause.

Looking Ahead: Downtown in October

- Fall Shopping – Local businesses are rolling out fall flavors, fashions, and specials. Be sure to stop in and show your support.
- Fall Dining – Downtown restaurants are launching fall menus, seasonal decor, and special offers. Take a stroll, browse the storefronts, and treat yourself locally.
- Community Connections – October is a perfect time to explore downtown's historic spaces, enjoy live entertainment, and strengthen your ties with local partners.
