Get jazzed about the holidays with chart-topping saxophonist Dave Koz and his friends – jazz music icons: trumpeter Rick Braun, pianist Keiko Matsui, vocalist Rebecca Jade, and guitarist Peter White. Koz and Friends will perform fresh renditions of timeless Christmas classics – as well as a Chanukah medley! – and hits from their respective catalogues.

In a recording career that spans nearly three decades, Dave Koz has racked up an astoundingly impressive array of honors and achievements: 9 GRAMMY® nominations, 11 No. 1 albums on Billboard’s Current Contemporary Jazz Albums chart, numerous world tours, performances for multiple U.S. presidents, a Star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame and appearances on a multitude of television shows. A platinum-selling artist, Koz is also known as a humanitarian, entrepreneur, radio host and instrumental music advocate.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

It has never been sweeter to shop local for the holidays! On Tuesday, November 15, the Huntington Regional Chamber of Commerce launched the Greater Huntington Candy Cane Trail, made possible with the generous support of Truist and the Cabell County Commission.

The Greater Huntington Candy Cane Trail is a free mobile passport that promotes and incentivizes shopping local for the holiday season. Participants will be able to earn points as they visit and redeem exclusive offers along the trail. Points can then be cashed in for prizes, which include a commemorative ornament, commemorative travel mug, and entries into a drawing for a $1,000 cash grand prize.

Residents of and visitors to the Huntington area can visit www.huntingtonchamber.org/trail to sign up for the passport, which will be active from November 15 to January 15.

More than 40 local businesses, including retail stores, restaurants, and wellness studios are signed up to be merchants along the trail.

The $1,000 Grand Prize winner will be selected on Monday, January 16, 2023.

If you are a local business who would like to be a merchant on the trail, contact Tricia Ball at tricia@huntingtonchamber.org.
