Postmortem

February 23-26
Joan C. Edwards Performing Arts Center

In this mystery/thriller, which has delighted audiences nationwide, it is April 1922 and the cast of William Gillette's latest Broadway revival of Sherlock Holmes has assembled for a weekend of relaxation at his magnificent medieval castle on a bluff overlooking the Connecticut River. For entertainment, actor-manager, playwright, and heart-throb William Gillette, best known for his 30-year portrayal of the famous crime sleuth Sherlock Holmes, has arranged a séance. Now the scene is set for his greatest role. Someone is trying to murder Gillette and he suspects it is one of his guests. Intrepid, eccentric, and wildly romantic, Gillette plans to solve the case himself à la Sherlock Holmes. For tickets and more information visit, www.marshall.edu/theatre/season

Letter from Paul Davis, President of the Downtown Huntington Partners

The Downtown Huntington Partners knows the importance of being active in the community. The past few years have been challenging for everyone and it is important more than ever to promote and be a part of our thriving Downtown area. Huntington has always been resilient and when it comes to dealing with these challenges we need strong leaders. That is what DHP is for; fostering social unity, communicating clearly, planning and implementing effective responses, and social events.

Sincerely,

Paul Davis,
President of The Downtown Huntington Partners
